

Eagle's Nest Bridge/ Eluminatus/ 2011/2012

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Bridge and Eluminatus is to provide educational support for homeschooling families of high school and middle school students. This program is NOT a replacement for daily instruction in the home.

HOW IT ALL WORKS

Bridge and Eluminatus operate under the umbrella of Eagle's Nest Christian Home Education Association. Participants in Bridge and Eluminatus MUST be members of Eagle's Nest because the organization is now incorporated and membership is required for legal compliance.

Bridge and Eluminatus are programs where home school high school and middle school students attend classes once a week and receive their instruction and weekly assignments.

As with any program that requires co-operation between the parents, teens and tutors, the greater the effort put into it by all parties, the greater the outcome.

The instructors view this program as a ministry and are dedicated to the success of your student.

PARENT RESPONSIBILITY

The parents are the PRIMARY instructors and are responsible for the daily accountability and in some cases, grading of their students schoolwork.

If a parent does not follow through with their responsibilities, the teen will have a very difficult time keeping up with the pace of the class assignments. If your circumstances prevent you from maintaining daily contact with your child, this may not be the program for you.

Parents are encouraged to attend classes with their teen whenever possible.

Tutors of Bridge and Eluminatus will issue grades but the parents make the final decision concerning grade assignment. Transcribing, record keeping and fulfilling testing and graduation requirements are also the responsibility of the parents.

Student success is directly related to the amount of parental involvement!

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

The students are responsible for arriving to class on time, completing their homework assignments and turning them in on time and to be attentive in class. Preparation for class includes working on their assignments daily and preparing any questions for the tutor. The teens must adhere to the rules for conduct outlined in the Church Policies and Behavior Guidelines.

If additional help is needed to understand the course material presented in class and assistance is required from the class tutor, the student needs to contact the tutor directly.

TUTOR RESPONSIBILITY

The tutors of the Bridge and Eluminatus programs are responsible for the introduction of class subject material. They will provide student evaluation and assessment through homework assignments, projects, and testing and answer any questions relating to the course material. Course grades will be provided at least twice per academic school year. Tutors may establish their own guidelines for students to contact them should additional assistance be necessary.

FAMILY RESPONSIBILITY

Bridge and Eluminatus depend upon the cooperation and active participation of each family enrolled in the program. We are ALL busy but the ONLY way that Bridge and Eluminatus can offer all that we do to the students is to have HELP! At least one parent from each family will need to serve TWO TIMES on Thursdays out of the academic year to assist with the monitoring of study hall and the lunchroom or to assist in the classes, a 3 hour commitment. Please refer to the letter in your packet.

There is also a need for parents to step up and help with some special events that we would like to offer. Don't assume that someone else will do it! If there is no response for volunteers, the event will NOT take place. IDEAS ARE WELCOME!

If monthly payments are established, class fees are due the first of each month. The first payment is due August 1st. Class fees are due the first of each month beginning August 1st and going through April 1st. We pay a month in advance. Your classes will run from the end of August through May. A late fee of $15 per program (Bridge and/or Eluminatus) will be added to your bill if paid AFTER the 15th of the month.

The registration of a student into Bridge and Eluminatus will acknowledge that all of the above information has been read by the family and all parties agree to the content.

A tremendous amount of time and effort has gone into planning and implementing this program to benefit your family and to assist you with your high school and middle school home education.

We appreciate your continuous prayers for the students, instructors and staff.

We would also like to hear from you throughout the year. Positive comments are always welcome but please discuss any areas of concern or negative comments with the Director.
